

eTDE Glossary of Terms and Acronyms

Term / Acronym	Description / Definition
eTDE	eTrade Document Exchange is a web based content management system that was created to support the domestic and international trade of US agricultural products.
eAuthentication	USDA password-based security system with Secure Socket Layer security protocol
Entity	Company registered with eTDE
Document Provider	Originator of documents
Document Owner	Company that has rights to assign documents
Document User	Company who has viewer access only
Supersede	Method to revise document previously uploaded
MetaData	Information that identifies and defines the document